Free. Confidential. Supportive.

Victim advocacy offers support, information and referral to resources and specific wrap-around support so people can make informed and empowered decisions. You do not need to report to law enforcement or be involved in a court case to get help from us. We support people of all ages who have experienced harm—no matter when it happened.

What We Offer

Safety Planning

We can help you make a plan that fits your situation. You can talk with us about options, safety tips, and resources.

Sexual Assault & Medical Advocacy

We respond 24/7 to local emergency rooms to support survivors of sexual assault. If you're getting a medical exam or evidence collection, we can be there in person to support you.

Under Washington State law, sexual assault survivors have the right to have an advocate or support person with them during medical exams and legal interviews.

Legal Advocacy

We can support you through both civil and criminal legal processes. We help with protection orders, attend court with you, and can support you during police interviews, trials, and other legal steps.

Counseling

Processing trauma takes time. We offer counseling to survivors. Services are trauma-informed and available to youth and adults.

Courthouse Facility Dog

We have a trained support dog who helps people feel calm and supported. He can join you during court-related processes when working with an advocate.

Community Education

We provide training for schools, service providers, workplaces, and community groups. These trainings focus on trauma, safety, and how to support survivors.

We're here for you.

Our services are free, confidential, and available to survivors of nearly all types of crime.

If you have questions or just need someone to talk to—call us.

Anyone can experience abuse.
